FOOT BALL.

A Very Good Practice Game at Salem Yesterday.

Alleghany and Roanoke College met for a practice game yesterday afternoon on the college grounds.

In the first half the ball was kept well into Alleghany's territory. Roanoke losing the ball several times on fumbles and fouts, but regaining it on downs. In the latter part of this half Alleghany made two pretty runs by Dukes and Handy II, the latter of which, being for about forty yards, carried the ball to Roanoke's twenty-five yard line. Alleghany tried a line play unsuccessfully and time was called, neither side having scored. In this half Roanoke had played several light men for practice, but in the second half Captain Jones lined up a stronger team for real play.

Alleghany kicked off and Roanoke then by many good line rushes and several nice runs around the end carried the ball over for a touchdown in less than three minutes. Jones I. failed at goal. Alleghany again kicked off and Roanoke carried the ball straight down the field to Alleghany's 15 yard line. Here the referee made another (of the many) rash and unfair decisions of the game by giving the ball over to Alleghany, although Jones I., who ran with the ball, still had possession of it.

After a couple of unsuccessful plays the teams were called off the field after only eight minutes of the second half. The features of the game for Alleghany were the two runs of Handy and Duke around the end and the bucking of Handy I. through Roanoke's line, all in the first half.

Roanoke's men played rather slow in the first half, but quick, snappy ball in the second. The runs of Jones I. and II. around the end and the line bucking of Miller and Jones I., were the features of Roanoke's playing with the ball. Several of Roanoke's men deserve special mention for their blocking and tackling. This game was the first of several practice games these two teams expect to play and Captain Jones seemed to care more for the practice his men were getting than the score. The Roanoke men got good practice in the game and expect to put up a strong game against Blacksburg next Tuesday.

The time of the first half was 20 minutes; second half 8 minutes.

THE CAPTAIN OF THE ROANOKE COLLEGE TEAM ON YESTERDAY'S TROUBLE.

To the Editor of The Roanoke Times:—The Roanoke College football team unanimously wishes to apologize to the Alleghany team and the officials of the game for the hasty action of one of its players in striking the referee in this evening's game. A personal apology was tendered on the spot and accepted; but the team also expresses its regrets that it has met a team with such unfair players as Alleghany's right tackle and full back, and hopes in the future there may be fairer, opener and cleaner playing between the two institutions and that one or more officials may be gotten from another school. Respectfully,

J. W. JONES, Captain.

FOR THE FIRST TIME.

A Republican Meeting in Savannah Attended by White Men.

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 16.—To-night for the first time in the history of the Republican party a mass meeting held in Savannah under its direction was attended by representative white citizens in large numbers. The Savannah Theatre was crowded, every seat being taken and 200 or more white men standing, a number going away rather than do without seats. The main body of the building was given up to the whites, colored voters occupying the galleries, with a small sprinkling of them below. Every class of white citizens was represented and an unusual degree of interest was manifested in the speeches.

The speakers were W. A. Leaken, of Savannah, and Maj. J. F. Hansen, of Macon, Republican electors, and Joseph E. Doyle, Republican candidate for Congress in this district. All were well received and the points made in opposition to free silver at 16 to 1 were applauded.

Major Hansen made the main address, speaking for over an hour in favor of the policies of gold and protection. The South, he pointed out, is especially interested in the two main planks on which McKinley stands, its new industries requiring the fostering care of the Government and its vast and varied and rapidly increasing general business interests absolutely demanding a sound financial basis for their free expansion and prosperity. The feature of Major Hansen's speech that was best received was his assertion that the growth and assumption of demagogues in the South had begotten good results in giving birth to a new spirit of independence, which promised to be the political salvation of this section. Many gold standard Democrats were among those present.

FLAMES IN PETERSBURG.

The Mitchell Printing Establishment Completely Destroyed.

Petersburg, Oct. 16.—About 8:30 this evening fire was discovered in the printing establishment of the Mitchell Manufacturing Company, in the third story of a building on Sycamore street, in the heart of the business part of the town.

An alarm was turned in and the entire fire department responded. After a stubborn fight of about an hour the flames were subdued, but not until the entire plant of the Mitchell Company had been consumed and the building gutted. Pritchett & Co., stationers, on the ground floor, were burned out. The loss of the Mitchell Manufacturing Company is about $25,000; insurance $15,000. Pritchett & Co.'s loss is $4,500, covered by insurance. The stocks of the China Palace and Plummer & Wheeler, hardware dealers, on either side of the burned building, were slightly damaged by smoke and water. The building, owned by Miss Maud Taylor, valued at $7,000, is a total loss; insurance not ascertained.

THE DANA LAW UPHELD.

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—The supreme court in a decision to-day sustained the constitutionality of the Dana law, which prevents a name being printed more than once on the Australian ballot. The decision was rendered in a mandamus suit brought by the Bar Association of Franklin county to compel the name of the candidate for judge nominated by the Bar Association and endorsed by the Democrats to be placed on the ballot in two places.

GLADSTONE'S LETTER APPLAUDED.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 16.—Among the speakers at to-day's session of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was Alexander M. Hadden, of Calvary Church, Jacksonville, Fla. A committee was appointed to draft fitting testimonials on the deaths of the late Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop Arthur Cleveland Coxe, of Western New York. A personal letter to the convention from the great English statesman, Hon. W. E. Gladstone, was read by President Silas McBee and heartily applauded.

QUARRELED ABOUT MONEY.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 16.—At Jordonia, ten miles from here, Taz Hyde shot and seriously wounded his brother, Shiloh Hyde, and mortally wounded his sister-in-law, as a result of a quarrel over money matters. Taz Hyde says he shot his brother in self-defense and that he did not see Mrs. Hyde during the difficulty and had no intention of shooting her. He was placed in jail.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.

New York, Oct. 16.—The tug Niagara was run down in the North river off the American Line pier, at the foot of Fulton street, by the steamer Magenta, this afternoon. The tug went to the bottom three minutes after being struck. The crew jumped into the river, and two are known to have been drowned. Three were rescued. The lost are: John Simms, colored, aged 19, cook's helper; fireman, name unknown.

ANOTHER MATTER.

Circumstances after cases, says the proverb, and sometimes the metamorphosis is accomplished with amazing suddenness.

Two amateur hunters in the northern woods, not long ago, saw a deer, and both fired at once.

"That is my deer," said A. "I shot it."

"No, you didn't," hotly replied B. "It is my deer, because I killed it."

A third party was approaching from the opposite direction, with fire in his eye and a club in his hand.

"Which of you two rascals shot my calf?" roared the farmer.

"That fellow just told me he did it," said A.

And B, now thoroughly alarmed for his personal safety, answered:

"He lies. He shot it himself. I saw him do it, and I'll swear to it."—The Interior.

The Army Correspondents' Monument Unveiled Yesterday.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 16.—Old newspaper men from all over the country, with their friends, were here in great numbers to take part in the unveiling of "the army correspondents' monument" on the battlefield at Antietam this afternoon. The ceremony included the reading of papers by James Seney, George Alfred Townsend, Junius H. Brown, E. C. Steadman and S. Cadwallader.

The monument is located at Gaplands. Its style is rigid and strong. The superstructure consists of one large arch, supporting three smaller ones, with a battle-mounded side tower, from which a flag-staff rises twenty feet high. It is constructed of mountain sandstone, and is sixty feet in height.

The tablets on the memorial are inscribed with the names of about 200 war correspondents and artists, including those of Finley Anderson, John A. Cockrill, Whitelaw Reid, Henry M. Stacy, G. W. Snoddy, Russell Young, H. V. Boynton and George Alfred Townsend. The names of Southern correspondents inscribed in the monument are: P. W. Alexander, Durant Daponte, E. G. De Fontaine, D. C. ATLANTA BANK IN TROUBLE.

The Merchants' Bank Makes an Assignment to Protect Its Creditors.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 16.—The Merchants' Bank, one of the oldest and for many years soundest financial institutions in this city, closed its doors this morning, having made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors. The failure was not unexpected, in financial circles, but its announcement created considerable excitement among the bank's depositors, a large crowd of whom quickly gathered about the unopened doors. A notice posted on the door simply stated that the bank had assigned to J. G. Oglesby, George W. Scott and George Winship, and that it was believed that all depositors would be paid in full.

The failure of the bank was due to the withdrawals of deposits within the last few days caused by a rumor to the effect that Tax Collector A. P. Stewart, who had $49,000 on deposit there, had been asked by the bank officials not to check any of this money out. The officials deny that any such request was made. All of Stewart's checks were honored. He withdrew the $49,000 and that, coupled with withdrawals caused by the rumor, occasioned embarrassment, and it was deemed best to go into liquidation.

The amount owed depositors is $275,000. There is no run on any other bank.

A DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 16.—A special to the News from Dayton, Tenn., says: About 1 o'clock this morning 235 pounds of dynamite stored in the Dayton Coal and Iron Company's supply house exploded, causing much destruction. The supply house was a large two-story frame building. The explosion wrecked the company's office 150 feet away and badly damaged the large company store. Every business house in the city, including the courthouse and school buildings, as well as residences, had their windows shattered. No one was killed. The explosion was of incendiary origin. The company's loss will exceed $10,000 and other damages in the city are heavy.

TYNAN GETS EXCITED.

Boulogne-sur-Mer, Oct. 16.—P. J. P. Tynan, the alleged dynamiter, who was released from prison last evening, got his effects at the prefecture this morning and will go to Paris at noon. He resents the charges of intemperance, brought against him by the British press, and when asked to make a statement said: "Talk for the benefit of the newspapers? Not at any price. All that I can do is to shut with all my might—'down with the English.'"

A TENNESSEE MUTINY.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 15.—A special to the Banner from Chattanooga, Tenn., says: The county workhouse prisoners at work near Soddy mutinied last night and twenty-eight of them made a rush on the guards, who opened fire on them with shot guns, wounding half of them, all negroes, seriously, and quelling all except four, who made their escape. The matter created great excitement at Soddy. It is thought that four of the wounded negroes will die.

WATSON DISAPPOINTED THEM.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 16.—A special to the Star from Fort Scott, Kas., says: The fact that Vice-Presidential Candidate Watson's Kansas dates had been cancelled was not received in the country and in the towns along the Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota railroad and to-day at nearly every town on that railway large crowds assembled from the surrounding country to see and hear him. Some farmers drove twenty miles to be present and the crowds were all greatly disappointed at the nominee's failure to appear.
